Marriage & Family Therapy Clinic: Live Case Demonstration (Spring 2012)

The Live Case Demonstration provides a rare opportunity for participants to observe and experience clinical interviews in action at the Marriage & Family Therapy Clinic. A variety of family cases covering a spectrum of developmental issues are referred by professionals from different disciplines for consultation and treatment. The live family interview is conducted by the Founding Director of the Institute Dr. Lee Wai-yung and other experienced clinicians. The case formulation and reflective analysis preceding and following the demonstration will enable participants to share their experiences and insights with our trans-disciplinary team of experts in the field of psychiatry, psychology, social work, pediatrics, and family medicine. Human service practitioners and those who are interested in the transparent process of family therapy are welcomed. The Live Case Demonstration will be mainly conducted in Cantonese and held on Saturday afternoons.
